

\* Please note that the pullback measurement shown in the handlebar drawing is taken on a straight, flat reference surface. Once the handlebars are installed on the motorcycle, the actual pullback will be slightly greater (approximately  $318$  mm ( $12 \frac{1}{2}$ ")) because the natural rake angle of the triple tree tilts the bars back.